about the band

Brothers, Michael & Kurt Koppelman are the force behind raintribe. Born in the 90s Minneapolis music scene, now reimagined with a new cast of players.

Songwriter, Michael Koppelman is known to get to the root of fragile emotions flawlessly with poetic lyrics and magnetic melodies. Recently, raintribe has been part of the annual Lutsong Music Festival as well as performing at various venues throughout the Twin Cities.

The new raintribe single, Chariot, was released in July 2023.

raintribe's debut album, Ancient Spacemen (1995), was nominated for a MN Music Award for best self-produced record. That makes sense given frontman Michael's history as an engineer, producer and writer at Paisley Park.
